“ Irene was my aunt by marriage, I was married to Herman Meinsen. Herman and I spent many days with Irene over the years. We always would go driving thru the country and she would show us all the sites, the places you did not see from the main road. She would show us all the short cuts and the old bridges in the country. Irene was known and loved by everyone in town. She could sew anything she wanted and over the years pieced many a quilt. I enjoyed many a meal at her table. I will miss her very much.

Jackie and Judy (her grand daughters) have looked after her for many years. They did a great job and she loved them very much and was so proud of them.
