

Alexandra Morales

February 26, 1934 - February 18, 2022

Alejandra Chavez Morales, followed her beloved husband Tim Morales to their eternal home. Tia Alex, as she was known by her family, left a legacy of hysterical stories, with her spitfire personality and quick wit. She will forever be known as the “baby sister” of a group of amazing women who left their mark on this world. There wasn’t anything Alex didn’t do once she set her mind to it, even if that included haircuts on herself without a proper mirror or scissors. We will share and pass on all of her funny stories and memories. All of us cousins have an abundance of fabulous memories with our Tia. She was loved well. And we have no doubt that her precious husband was waiting on her with open arms as they embodied the definition of soulmates.

Alex is survived by her sister, Magdalena Lozano of Ventura, CA , nieces: Mary Garcia, Margaret Martinez, of California, nephews: Paul, Harvey and David Lozano along with a multitude of nieces and nephews. Her Georgia family: Charlene Morris of Carrollton, Steven, Heidi, Allie, McKayla, Cayden, and Tyler/Victoria Sweatt; Seth, Gina, Drake and Roman Land; Jimmy, Shanon, Whitley/Jeremy(Goolsby), Maci/Austin and Braxley(Smith), Kelsee and Kamree Holloway. She was surrounded by her family and blessed with visits from friends and modern day technology with family back home.

We would like to thank Bremen Hospital for the above and beyond care and dignity given to our Alex. Dr. Megli and staff, thank you. You are a wonderful blessing to our small town.

Thank you to The Hudson House for loving our Auntie well and allowing her to still be her. No place could have given her more joy in the final years and we thank you for your compassion and love.

Graveside services will be held on Sunday, February 20, 2022 at 4:00 p.m. at Our Lady of Perpetual Catholic Church in Carrollton, Georgia. Interment will follow the services.

In lieu of flowers the family prefers donations be made in memory to The Hudson House. (443 Bagwell Rd, Carrollton, GA 30117),
