“ I recall the time Milford and Annie Mae were recently married, Howard and I walked several miles to their house, this was probably 1949. They lived off the state line road (Uncle Reese lived on the corner) a few miles near Gwen and Marion. They were having a wonderful time together and looking forward to their future and life ahead. I think they did have a wonderful life, serving God, and both are missed. Our lost but God's gain.

Our thoughts, prayers and love continues to be you all.

*Loving God, Loving Each Other.

“ This poem fits Annie Mae . . .

*God knew I needed a blessing
So He sent you my way.
God knows what our needs are
And blesses us each day.*

*With your laugh, your smile
And in every deed you do.
God blessed my life with so much love
When He blessed my life with you!*

*A friend like you is a joy forever
I'm so glad God sent you my way.
I am so thankful for you,
And I will thank the Lord each day.*

God bless you!

Numbers 6:24-26

24 The Lord bless thee, and keep thee:

25 The Lord make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee:

26 The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.

“ Mrs. McGuire was a wonderful sweet southern christain woman of God. She always had a sweet smile and warm hug when she saw you. She wanted everyone to know her Father and her Savior Jesus Christ. She raised her children this way. They are now wonderful people all working for God. She was greatly lived and she will be greatly missed. God finally has his daughter home ! I know all of heaven is rejoicing in His happiness! We will see her soon one day again . There in heaven she will be there to greet us with that sweet smile and warm hug. My deepest sympathy and love to the family of Mrs. McGuire !
