

Auston Lambert

October 26, 1996 - August 25, 2025

Thomas Auston Lambert, passed away on Monday, August 25, 2025, in Newnan, Georgia. He was 28.

Auston was born in Austell, Georgia on October 26, 1996. He graduated from Bowdon High School in 2016 and started his military career in the Army National Guard where he served as an IT specialist, Radio Operator and a Diesel Mechanic. Auston was a part of the 15th Signal Brigade, 122nd/121st Infantry (airborne) Long Range Surveillance and the 1st Battalion 54th Security Forces Assistance Brigade. Auston's greatest accomplishment in the military was getting his foreign wings when he went overseas to Georgia and trained with their military and jumped out of airplanes. Auston was awarded the Army Achievement Medal and has many more achievements throughout his career in the military. Auston completed 9 years in the military and finished his service in November 2024.

Auston enjoyed the outdoor adventures he had with his friends. Anywhere from parkour, long-boarding down mountains, or even cave exploring. Auston also loved to run. It was one of his greatest passions. Auston was full of life and loved getting work done and getting ahead in life. Whenever his friends came to him with concerns or dilemmas, he would ask them, "What is most important to you?" Auston would help others and give advice to them when they needed to hear it.

Auston was preceded in death by his maternal grandmother, Debra Smith Moore Greene, maternal grandfather Randall Morris Moore, maternal great grandmother, Helen Weathers Smith Schelper, maternal great grandfather John "JB" Smith, maternal great grandmother, Marie Flowers Moore and maternal great grandfather, David Ben Moore Sr.

Auston is survived by his wife, Macie Lambert; his father, Mark Lambert; mother, Angie Lambert; and his brothers, Shane Lambert and Jared Lambert.

A memorial service for Auston will be held on September 20, 2025 at 10: 00 am at the Veterans Memorial Park in Carrollton, Georgia.
