“ Penny i know this is one of the hardest life events you've ever had to face. I also know that the days ahead will be hard. Losing a parent that you were so close to is not easy. You will have days when you need her with you as i so often do. But it's the best feeling in the world knowing she is with the father in heaven! He will be your strength in those dark and hard times. Having peace knowing she is with God is the best feeling in your heart.. Love you and your family. If you ever need to talk I'm here. Praying for you all!
