

Carole N Cook

October 14, 1946 - January 8, 2024

Carole N. Cook, the first of three daughters, was born Sherlyn Carole Nuckolls to R. T. (Robert Thomas) Nuckolls and Hazel Lovvorn Nuckolls of the Dot Road Community in Bowdon, Ga, on October 14, 1946. Her parents preceded her in death in 2015 and 2022, respectively.

Carole began a career in cosmetology while in high school, working at the Kut and Kurl Salon in Bowdon. She graduated from Bowdon High School in 1964 and continued on to West Georgia College. She was integral to the creation of the cosmetology department at Carroll Technical Institute, now known as West Central Technical College, and went on to head the department. She relocated to Nashville, Tennessee, in 1975, continuing her career in cosmetology education, eventually opening her own school, The Hair School, Inc. It was said that she taught most of the hairdressers in Nashville. In the early 1980's, she opened her own salon, Scruples Hair Design, which she re-named Rumours Salon when she relocated to The Vanderbilt Plaza Hotel.

In the mid-1990's, Carole returned to Bowdon, Georgia, moving later to Carrollton, and launched her near-30 year career as an award winning Realtor. She worked with Duffey Realty, Benchmark Brokers, ReMax, Georgia West Realty, and retired from Century 21 Novus in February of 2022.

Carole was a lifelong student, always pursuing advanced knowledge in her field and exhaustively researching Alzheimer's Disease, the illness that took her on January 8, 2024. After several hospitalizations, she was working toward becoming stronger during her physical rehabilitation stay at Carrollton Manor with the hope to return to her beloved home and friends at Brookdale Senior Living in Carrollton. She passed away peacefully with her youngest sister, Paula, at her side on January 8, 2024 due to failing health from Alzheimer's Disease.

“ So much to say about this classy, smart lady. She was a friend to us first and foremost then our realtor. My husband and I spent many days, hours, phone calls, alot of laughter. Carole called us when she was first diagnosed with dementia. We had not talked in years but our friend called one day and said and I quote. Hi Laura and Mike this is Carole Cook. I just wanted to call the people I care about while I still know them. I was taken back. That's when Carole told us she always thought of us as her friends and that she loved us and wanted us to know that. It was heart breaking bc of all people Carole kept her mind busy. Always working just such a smart lady. I will never forget, we was at a closing once and I made the comment just how smart of a realtor she was and I called her Miss Remax bc she was. I will always remember that smile. It still doesn't seem real. I and my husband loved Carole and we all have so many special memories. For me it was her personality, her smile, her laugh, her driving us house to house to house. Most of all Carole was one CLASSY LADY and we loved her dearly. Our prayers are with her family. Another thing was Carole was a stand up lady. Love her forever. Love In Christ, Dr Michael and Laura Gaines
