

Mr. Charles Douglas Perry

October 21, 1968 - May 22, 2026

Mr. Charles Douglas Perry, of Carrollton, Georgia, passed away on May 22, 2026, at the age of 57.

Charles was born on October 21, 1968, in Newnan, Georgia, to Charles Melvin Perry and Mary Ann Perry. He spent much of his working life as a dedicated truck driver for Georgia Container, continuing in the profession until his illness no longer allowed him to do the work he enjoyed.

Charles was known for his warm personality and easygoing nature—someone who truly never met a stranger. He had a way of making people feel welcome and could often be found sharing a story, telling a joke, or finding a reason to laugh. His sense of humor and friendly spirit left a lasting impression on those who knew him. A man who loved his country, he was a proud veteran of the U.S. Army Reserves.

He enjoyed life's simple pleasures and made the most of time spent doing the things he loved. Charles looked forward to camping trips and treasured time at the beach, where he could relax and enjoy being outdoors. He also enjoyed collecting guns and spending quiet time watching his favorite classic television shows, especially Emergency! and *MASH. Whether surrounded by family and friends or enjoying his favorite hobbies, Charles appreciated good company and moments that brought joy.

He was preceded in death by his father and his brother and sister, Danny Perry and Bonnie Sue Perry.

In addition to his mother, survivors include his children and their spouses,

Charles "Chuckie" and Jesse Perry, Jessica and Michael Coleman, Jacob Perry, and Melanie and Gage Riddle; his grandchildren. Allen, Lisa, and Scotty Perry, Eli Coleman, and Oakleigh White; his former wife and mother to his children, Lisa Perry; and his siblings and their spouses, Pat Adams, Daryl and Paula Perry, and Gloria and Charles Collins.

Funeral services will be held on Tuesday, May 26, 2026, at 2:00 p.m. in the Chapel of Rainwater Funeral Home. Rev. Anthony Puckett will officiate.

Pallbearers will be Ben Faulkner, Charles "Chuckie" Perry, Gage Riddle, Jacob Perry, Colton Norton, and Denver Hudgins. Interment will follow at Carroll Memory Gardens.

Prior to the service on Tuesday, the family will receive friends from 12:00 p.m. until the funeral hour.

“ Charles and me go way back, we went to school together and later in our adult life even worked together for a concrete company, Charles was like a brother to me even though we didn't get to see one another much in the last few years, I loved Charles as though he was my brother, we had a lot of good times in school and after, memories I will always cherish, I will miss you my friend until we meet again, friends always.

“ My memories go way back with Charles. We worked together in 2005 and I had the opportunity to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ while on the job. Charles was under conviction but just wasn't ready to commit at that time.

Thank God that's not the end of the story. In 2024 I ran into Charles at Everything Outdoors store where he told me that he had made things right with God! We talked for 30 minutes or more about the Lord.

When I heard of his passing I just thanked God for allowing me to meet Charles that day and hear his testimony of salvation.

To his precious family- my prayers are with you. This is a time of grief but does not have to be “goodbye”. According to Charles' own testimony, he is with the Lord. God has provided a way that we can be together again for eternity. If you haven't already, please make Jesus your choice. It is the most important decision you will ever make.
