“ Several years ago, we had the priviledge of meeting a mighty Woman of Faith, even in the midst of her trials and tribulations, she always had that beautiful smile on her beautiful face, she truly was an inspiration to our Ministry at the Bowdon Church of God, I was saddened when we moved Churches but we will always know she loved us. She loved all of those that she came in contact with and held each of you up to her Lord and Savior. May you be comforted in knowing that if you are God's you will see her again, She is waiting on all of us in Heaven, where she will never suffer again and as she put it I will have my new glorified body, and never grow old. May she be forever remembered as God's faithful servant. I smile this day because she has seen the face of her Savior and her Mansion. Many fond memories of her, Br. Denny and her precious family, to each of you if me or my family can be of any assistance to you please call on us, Bishop Greg Banks, Donna and Jordan..... We love you all.

Ms. C was a great lady and the world is a little bit darker without her in it. The Wessinger family is a part of MY family and has been since I was in 8th grade. My heart goes out to all of them. Heaven received another angel yesterday!
