“ I'll always remember Claudia as a warm and loving person. I believe She was the first of the cousins I met when I married into the family. She wasn't about to let me stay a stranger for long! We had an instant connection that's continued for the last 20 years. I remember how she stuck by me and Frankie during all the legal procedures after we lost Cheryl, always there and always a hug. I'm sure going to miss her but I know she missed Kenneth too. I'm so happy they are together once more. We'll meet again one day in a never ending reunion. Love and prayers to all our family Kathy & Frankie
