“ Years ago when Dianne was raising chickens and I worked for Gold Kist, we became friends. I remember that she quilted as well as many other things. I sent her a magazine that had a Santa made out of an old quilt. It was fitted over a gallon bottle. Dianne made a quilt and then cut it up to make me that Santa. I didn't send her the magazine to get her to make it for me. I just sent it because I knew she quilted. That Santa still sits on the hearth in my home. It will remain there in remembrance of Dianne. Rest in Peace sweet lady.
