“ I wont claim to know Eddie as well as most of you, but I will share the fact that every single time I was able to speak to him about anything he was a comfort and a help.He was always grinning and smiling like he had gotten away with something,and he always made people feel good just by being in his presence.I now understand that he was just overflowing with Joy and God's love....he oozed it out of his skin.He was always positive and upbeat despite his struggle with cancer.I was often blessed by Missy's daily updates of their adventures and the pictures of him sleeping like a baby while he was getting his treatments like it was the most leisurely thing in the world,then followed by a picture of him sitting before a huge plate of food. He truly was an inspiration to everyone who knew him and will be missed. I know he is looking down now and smiling that smile he had and praising Jesus....see ya soon my friend
