“ To Curtis and family:
I know your hearts are overwhelmed with loss and pain of a wonderful, sweet wife, mother and grandmother. I still can't believe she's gone. I'll always remember how sweet she was, she always went out of her way to speak to me and my family each time we "came back home to Indian Creek". She never had to say much, her smile and little laugh said it all. I've found that the only true comfort to be found when you've lost a loved one is in the word of God. "From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed. Lead me to the rock that is higher than I. For thou hast been a shelter for me, and a strong tower from the enemy." Psalm 61:2-3. I love you all and please call if you need anything.

“ *Dear Pam and Family,
The grief of losing someone so special is never easy. From reading the tributes here we know that your mom lived an awesome life. She loved well. She leaves a family who will continue her walk as people of Faith. That Faith is strong enough to carry you through this difficult time, and will be the greatest ongoing demonstration of your mother's legacy. We pray for you to be at peace. God is holding you.
In love,
Your co-workers on Tanner Skilled Nursing*

“ God has called another Angel home. Elizabeth lived a life that is an example of how every Christian should live. She will surely be missed. Family know that you are in my thoughts and prayers through this difficult time. Psalms 30: 5 says that " weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning". There is coming a day for those who have accepted Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior When we will Meet Her on the street of Gold.
With Love, Brian D.
