“ Freddie and I loved Mrs. Era. She was a very talented woman. She used to make quilts and she made tons of cemetery flower arrangements for her family's Graves.

I surely hated to hear that Era has passed! She and Merrill were good friends of ours 50 years ago.....We taught Rodney in youth group at Temple Baptist Church when he was a teen.....Flies by so quickly! Our heart-felt love goes to the entire family! Thank you, Brenda for letting us know.

Grandmother was always happy to see us we didn't get to visit near as much as we had liked to, but when we did it was always a happy time filled with laughter and memories!! I sure am gonna miss you grandmother, but you're high on that mountain with no more pain & suffering!! Until we meet again watch over us!! RIP I love you & sure am gonna miss that smile!!!
