“ Ms. Evelyn was such a sweet, beautiful lady. She was on the nursing home side (where I worked) a little while after an injury. She always was dressed up to the T, matching earrings. She was such a sweet lady, I often stopped as I was going home to stop and talk to her. She and Ms. Maddox were often together taking their little walks around the facility in the sunshine. I don't think she ever met a stranger. Her smile was so warm and you knew she cared about you. I loved her. I remember hearing that she had fallen, trying to put something in her closet. I offered to do that for her, and asked her to just put the items on the foot of her bed and ask if one of the aides could help her. Her dear friend Ms. King told me of her passing, as I left from my visit to the facility..... I'm so sorry to hear this..... She was a sweet, beautiful lady, who made you feel good as you stopped to talk to her. She is being missed right now at the Oaks, by all her friends, I'm sorry I did not get to her funeral, Or even know until today. I will miss you, Ms. Evelyn.....
