“ I am just learning of Frank's passing. My sincere sympathy to Shirleen and all the family. Frank and I were assigned to work at the drive-thru during a fish fry and bbq -- that's when I got to know his "funny" side -- he was constantly cracking jokes and making funny remarks. He will be greatly missed in the Bowdon community and Bowdon First United Methodist church. Rest in peace, Frank.

“ *So sorry to hear of the passing of my Great Uncle Frank Meigs. He will be deeply missed. He was a minister and a great person to have at all the reunions. He was very funny. No matter what grade I was in, he would ask me if I was in the third grade now. I give my thoughts and prayers to my great aunt Shirlene and their family. Rest in peace Uncle Frank. “ Frank, I'll always remember all the happy times our family shared through the years, your laugh and your personality. I was always welcome into your family as well as my family and friends. I'm going to miss sharing my birthday with you and having two cakes on the table. :) I know the boys are going to miss you, but I'll be sure to show them pictures and tell them what pure joy they brought to yours and Shirleen's life. I know how much y'all loved them, they loved y'all so much too. You looked forward every year to planning your class reunion, Bowdon High School Class of 1948. The last few years, I'd joked with you about having them in the ER (just in case) a member needed CPR. :) I'm sure your class will miss you too. You've certainly left a big hole in lots of hearts, but at the same time, you left us all with many good (and funny) memories. I would never tell you anything like 'goodbye' but I'll say, later and Go Dawgs!

“ My Uncle Frank was a strong man and a character, when I was little he would make cat sounds so I'd be looking everywhere for the cat or kitten I heard. Growing up and even while I attended college I enjoyed many dinners with him at my grandmother Ward's house where we ate most every Monday night, Uncle Frank always had a joke but otherwise didn't say too much. He enjoyed his dinner. He always had a nice garden and I remember he kept bees at one time as well which to me made him brave. Sometimes he called me Sally, I think he called a lot of people Sally. It was just his way.

“ My Uncle Frank was quite the jokester. When I was little he always make me laugh with the noises he could make. He always called me Sally but I never asked him why. I just accepted it as his term of endearment. He was quiet but strong and He loved the Georgia Bulldogs. Rest in eternal Peace Uncle Frank. You will be missed.

“ I just found out today that Frank has passed away. I have been going to his church for over 15 years when I am home visiting my brother. Frank sat behind me an one day he said my last name is Meigs. I told him that my cousins were Meigs also an we found out that my Uncle Bill an him were cousins. He would see me coming an say Oh No there she is again. He was a true friend an will be truly missed. Susan Smith Carr
