“ I, Nan Phelps, have a lot of memories of Frank Sims. Frank and his family and my family attended Shiloh Baptist Church in Graham when I was a child and in my early teens. Also, my father and Frank rode to work together since they both worked together at Trent Tube in Carrollton, Ga. Frank's two boys(Chris and Tony) played ball a lot of afternoons after we got off the school bus at my home in Graham with me and my brothers. I extend my deepest sympathy to the family.

“ My wife and I would see Frank and James at yard sales and estate sales and we quickly became friends. He knew my wife collected a certain item and he brought her what he had at home. Frank was Kind, Generous, thoughtful and a GOOD FRIEND. Frank will be MISSED. Mickey Foster
