“ Gerald had a way to make the simplest story funny.He and another supervisor, Cecil Daniel would come to the quality lab in the Southwire Utility plant every night & aggregate my lab partner, George McBrayer, over something new every night.If he ran out of things to pester George over he would tell us tales of his family, or any wild tale he could dream up.I enjoyed his wild tales and tried to have my work caught up before 3 am so I could hear all the lavish tale.I soon learned he told more elaborate tales if I stayed out of sight & stayed behind my cubicle wall.He knew I was there when I busted out laughing or on the rare occasion came out to do work. To this day when I see a the pens cashiers use to check for counterfeit bills it is all I can do not to burst up laughing thinking of a story he told relating to a pen like that. He was one of a kind, the world needs more people like him.He will be missed.Praying his family can find peace & cherished happy golden memories with time. 🙏 Ms.Orlando Driver Bowdon GA
