

Mr. Greg Kimbrell

May 16, 1967 - August 19, 2017

Mr. Greg Kimbrell, of Graham, Alabama, passed away on August 19, 2017. He was 50.

Greg was born on May 16, 1967 in Carrollton, Georgia to Ronald and Glenda Kimbrell. He was a logger by trade and worked for Jerry Noles Logging. He was also a member of Rock Springs Baptist Church.

Greg was preceded in death by his grandparents, Neal and Hattie Kimbrell and Henry and Lois Marlow; and his nephew, Tanner Redden.

Survivors include his parents, Ronald and Glenda Kimbrell of Heflin, Alabama; his son and daughter-in-law, Gregory Chase and Tara Kimbrell of Wilkesboro, North Carolina; his grandson, Kingston Xavier Kimbrell, also of Wilkesboro; his sister and brother-in-law, Cindy and Marty Redden of Whitesburg, Georgia; his nephew, Cooper Redden, also of Whitesburg; a special friend, Carrie Lovvorn Phillips; and a very special aunt, Joann Crouch. Greg also leaves behind many friends, cousins, uncles, and aunts who loved him dearly.

Funeral services will be held on Tuesday, August 22, 2017 at 11:00 a.m. (Georgia Time) at Rock Springs Baptist Church. Bro. Chad Morgan and Bro. Darnell Teal will officiate. Music will be provided by the church choir. Pallbearers will be Brian Hammond, Adam Downs, Scottie Kimbrell, David Loveless, Clay Kimbrell, and Michael Kimbrell. Interment will follow in the church cemetery.

The family will receive friends at the funeral home on Monday, August 21, 2017 from 4:00 till 7:00 p.m. (Georgia Time).

“ I love Greg so much and I cannot believe this has happened. We use to ride back and fourth to work together when the Atlanta Assembly Plant was still open. He was like a big brother to me when I hired on at Ford. He will be truly missed by all those who knew him. God got another Angel that's for sure. Love you and will always miss you my brother.

Your friend and forever brother
