If you were Lindy's friend, you were his family and family was his world.

After graduating from Massey Business School, Lindy began his banking career with C&S Bank. As a member of the Army reserves, Lindy was called to active duty and served a year in Vietnam, afterward returning to C&S. In 1981, he chartered Tara State Bank in Clayton County and received a degree from University of Virginia Graduate School of Banking. Later, in 1994, Lindy founded Spectrum Financial Network Inc., which he entrusted to his son upon his retirement.

While in Clayton County, Lindy was very active in civic organizations – Kiwanis, Heart & Cancer associations, served on the Board at Clayton State College and the Clayton County Water Authority and served 2 years as President of the Community Bankers Association of Georgia.

“ Lindy was a great friend. I spent a year in Vietnam with Lindy and was one of his hooch mates. The bond one shares from having served in a combat zone for a year is like none other. I will miss my old friend.
