“ I'm so sorry for the loss of your sweet mother. My mother, Louise Holland loved her so much, and visited her at The Oaks when she was a resident there. Each time I went with Mama, Mrs. Hazel was smiling and so sweet, as she always had been. Love and prayers for God's comfort and grace during this difficult time.

“ I am thankful for the memories of times spent in conversation with Ms. Hazel at Corinth Baptist Church, and in the basement of J. C. Griffin's. It would be amazing to know how many yards of fabric she cut that my Mom, and many others, purchased to make our clothes!u
