

J.T. Craft

May 11, 2020

Mr. J.T. Craft, of Bowdon, Georgia, passed away on May 11, 2020.

J.T. was the son of the late Jessie James and Alma Lee Craft. He was retired from Ford Motor Company and, during his retirement, worked at Rainwater Funeral Home. He was a veteran of the U.S. Air Force and was a member of Bowdon Baptist Church where he attended the Fellowship Sunday School Class. J.T. was also a Master Mason at Bowdon Lodge 206 and, most would say, the lodge's cornerstone for many years. He supported Bowdon High School Athletics for many year and this past season had the pass gate officially named the "J.T. Craft Pass Gate" in his honor. J.T. was also an avid fan of the Georgia Bulldogs and spent many fall Saturdays in Athens, Georgia and around the Southeast cheering on the Dawgs. He was loved as a husband, father, and friend and quietly helped many while expecting nothing in return.

He is survived by his wife, Ann Craft; his children, Lisa (Mickey) Teague, Tim Craft, Lane (Craig) Pate, and Tracy (Amanda) Craft; and his grandchildren, Corey and Anna Teague, Justin and Jacee Pate, and Tyler and Riley Craft.

A complete obituary will be published when it is available.

“ What a loss Bowdon and all the surrounding area has suffered with the passing of this great man. I've known JT pretty much all my life, I used to spend the night at his house with Lane when we were much younger and always felt welcome there. JT and Ann would carry my parents dinner already prepared for no reason, just because. They would gladly share all the vegetables they would grow in the garden with anyone, just because. What a wonderful example they have instilled in their children to be your best everyday, JUST BECAUSE!! My sincere condolences to the family and everyone that will miss this wonderful man.

JT was a humble Spirit, I recall him driving some of us home from Ford Motor assembly plant one wintery night on highway 166 to get us home safely. During rec baseball, he was always there supporting his grandson and son in law. He has always supported the Bowdon Red Devil's in all aspects. Seems like a huge void has come upon our community, I thank God, His Son Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit for having the awesome privilege of knowing JT, all his brothers, and his daddy too. My sincerest heart felt love I send with these meager words to all the family and friends over our great loss.
