“ The greatest memory I have of my Uncle Jackie is when my sister Bonnie wanted to ride a horse that belonged to the Stover's down the hill. The horse was bare back and Bonnie was sitting on the horse. Jackie was standing next to the horse telling Bonnie to go for a ride. Bonnie kept saying I don't know if I want to I'm getting scared! Before Bonnie could do any thing, Jackie turned and smacked the horse really hard on the butt. Needless to say the horse took off like a shot. Bonnie was screaming at the top of her lungs and hanging on for dear life. Some how she managed to get the horse stopped and she didn't talk to Uncle Jackie for a week!! I love and think of you often Uncle Jackie. I am so glad that Bonnie and I got to see you at the "South Reunion" in your hot red mustang. Can't wait till we see each other again.

“ The most funny memory I have of Jackie is when we lived in Georgia. I was around 10 yrs old and my sister Bonnie was about 15 yrs. Bonnie wanted to ride one of the Stover's horses. She was a little afraid and was going to change her mind when Jackie hit the horse in the butt so hard it scared it to death and it took off like a bolt of lightning. My sister hung on for dear life and thank GOD she didn't get hurt. It wasn't funny at first, but when it was all over we couldn't help but laugh. Jackie was a bit ornery. So glad that he is not in pain any more and I will pray for all of his family.

Love,
