“ My old buddy has left for a better place. I will always remember the days (and nights) I spent with Buck. He was the best boss I ever had and a good friend. He could make me laugh in the most strangest places. He would always tell me Shad, don't get in a hurry when the time comes it will take care of its self. I wish miss bid daddy a lot.

Randy and I were so sad to hear of Mr. Buck's passing. We will be thinking of you and your family during the days and months ahead. I know my dad greeted him in Heaven and are catching up on old times. He sure thought a lot of Buck. I will always be grateful for the love and respect you and Mr. Buck showed my dad when he passed away. God bless you all in this sad time! Love, LeAnne and Randy Buchanan “ Words cannot describe the sadness that overcame Sue and me when we learned of Buck's passing. We lost a friend, philosopher, and fashion designer whose talent set a precedent that unfortunately was never fully accepted by some. I can't remember a time he wasn't wearing a smile, unless it was a grin that was a little suspicious. The memories of those miles spent going to Athens or those away places like Knoxville, Oxford, Nashville, and Jacksonville will flood my memory for as long as I live. He held court over that ragtag bunch in those vans as if he were king of the world. I feel so privileged to have been a part. We love you, Buck.

“ To: ALLEN RAINWATER and family. Although I personally didn't really know your dad... My heart just broke for you all when I found out he passed. You all will be in my families prayers. I know that my grandparents (Milford and Annie Mae McGuire) thought the absolute world of him. I know that there had to be a special calling upon your dad in order for Jesus to have called him up to heaven so that your dad could personally celebrate the Lord's birthday with him face to face!!! Our thoughts and prayers will stay with you and your family! Now and throughout the upcoming year!!! Melanie (Norton) McCormick. BHS class of 94.
