

Jane Kane DeBellis

June 7, 1937 - January 21, 2021

Jane DeBellis, of Bowdon, Georgia, passed at Higgins Memorial Hospital in Bremen, Georgia with longtime friend, Russel Downs, at her side.

She has joined her father and mother, Delmar G. Runner Geraldine K. Kane Runner, and her loving husband, Vincent E. DeBellis, in heaven.

Her surviving family are daughters, Denise M. DeBellis and Nancy E. DeBellis; her granddaughters, Callie Mahoney and Kimberly Perdicho; her nephews, Randy and Mark Bray; and her niece, Carrie Bray.

Jane was raised with a religious background. She attended Saint Ann Parrish, Holy Cross Academy, West Virginia University and American University and earned a degree in sociology. She taught school from 1960 to 1962. In 1963, she married Vincent E. DeBellis and remained his faithful wife until his death in 1985.

Services will be held on Monday, February 15, 2021 at 2:00 p.m. at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church in Carrollton, Georgia. Interment will follow in the church cemetery. For those unable to attend, there will be an online video of the service broadcast on the church's Facebook page (www.facebook.com/olphcc).

In lieu of flower Jane would like donations to be made to your favorite animal shelter, veterinarian, or wildlife protection charity. She loved all animals and was known for taking in strays.

Due to the current health situation, we ask that those attending the service to please consider wearing a mask and practice social distancing.

“ I knew Jane when Denise, Nancy, and I went to school. Jane always treated me as if I were one of the family. I will always cherish her smile and her wit. And I will always remember General Hospital! And all the times she put up with our shenanigans. Denise and Nancy, my deepest condolences for your loss.
