“ Had the honor of working with Jeremy for several years. Big Daddy is what I called him and his heart and personality was bigger than he was. After I left I still would drop by from time to time to get me a hug and catch up. He always considered and called everyone "my friend". We used to fish together a lot during lunch when we worked together. I pray that the Lord grants his family peace and comfort in the hours, days and months ahead. Love ya buddy!

“ I worked with Jeremy for over 20 years in his different positions He was always very kind, and always did more than was required. He was fun to be around and a big encourager. I especially appreciated the way he mentored young men he worked with. I considered him a friend, and he will be missed! Heaven just got a good man!
