“ I went to school with Jerry and also worked with him when he worked for Zayre's Dept store in the early 70's. He was always a very nice gentleman. May his memories be for a blessing.

I remember Jerry from many years ago when Daddy was his pastor at Sunset Heights Baptist Church. He would come to our house and Jerry and Daddy would study the Bible. Jerry always had questions for Daddy and an inquiring mind. Praying for peace for the family that can only come from our Father. God be with you all.

“ One veteran to another, but most importantly two brothers in Christ. It pains me to have say so-long to this faith based friend of mine. Our brother suffers no more. May Christ Jesus receive him with open arms. We shall see you again, brother.
