“ Johnnie was my best friend for many years. We shared so much....his divorces, my divorce, the loss of his Mother, the loss of mine, etc. I always knew that I could call him anytime and he was always there for me. After he retired, we talked at least once a week, before he retired it was every day. So when I retired, my husband Ken told him to please keep calling me because I needed him. The last time I saw Johnnie was at Kayla and Luke's wedding. We shared cake and conversation and parted with a big ole hug and an I love you. I never guessed that I wouldn't see him again. He called me on the Tuesday before he died. I couldn't believe it when I got the call. I pray that Johnnie is enjoying heaven with his parents and friends that went before him.
