

Jose Caro

November 30, 1929 - June 16, 2025

Jose Andres Caro, of Bowdon, Georgia, passed away on June 16, 2025. He was 95.

Jose was born on November 30, 1929 in Cienfuego, Cuba to the late Santiago and Andrea Caro. Having fled Cuba after being a political prisoner and to protect his family, Jose came to the United States to start his life from scratch with his wife, Maria. Being a hard worker, he was able to give his family everything they needed. Set in his ways and with what some might call a short fuse, he would still give you the shirt off his back. If you visited his house, you left with something whether it was a cup of coffee or something grown on his "plantation." If you were his friend, he was loyal to the core.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Maria Caro, and a daughter, Andrea Caro. He was also preceded by five brothers and six sisters.

He is survived by his granddaughter, Stephanie De Jesus and her husband, Ben; his grandson, B.J. McDaniel and his wife, Amber; and his pride and joy and the light of his life, his great-grandson, Colt De Jesus.

The family will receive friends at the funeral home on Friday, June 20, 2025 from 2:00 until 4:00 p.m. A private graveside will be held afterward.

“ I always respected Jose. We all should be Freedom Fighters!
Every time that I saw Jose, he was smiling and happy; he always wanted to leave me with more than I had “come to the table with”.
We should all be that way, too!
“I was talkin’ about you just the other day, Jose, and it was good.
I’ve missed you for a while now, but you positively influenced my life. Thank you for that, my Friend. I’ll miss you for a little while longer. - everlovin’, steve”
