“ I worked with Katie's grandmother for years and also knew Katie's mom, Melanie. They were all so kind and loving toward everyone. I got to know Katie going to auctions held in Roopville . I remember she always made sure I had something to drink! I'm sure she is flying with the angels watching over her baby girl!

“ Keeping the Family in my prayers. While I didn't know Katie personally , I know her grandmother Donna and grandfather Alan and her Aunt Sherry and I were great friends in college. Russell and I also were friends with her late Aunt Deneen. I love Katie's family and my heart breaks for them . I wish I could have met this sweet young lady who now rests with our Lord and Savior.
