*Remember me in quiet days, while raindrops whisper on your pane.
But in your memories have on grief, let just the joy we knew remain.
Remember me when evening stars look down on you with steadfast eyes. Remember if once you wake to catch a glimpse of red sunshine.
And when your thoughts do turn to me, know that I would not have you cry. But live for me and laugh for me, when you are happy, so am I.
Remember an old joke we shared; Remember me when spring walks
by. Thank once of me when you are glad, and while you live, I shell not die.*
