“ Larry Cospers baptized me on Mother's Day Sunday 1979 at Riverside Heights Baptist Church in Tallassee Alabama where he was the pastor. He was a dedicated warrior in following Christ and commanded both love and respect from the people of Tallassee. He was truly a great and wonderful friend of mine whom I shall never forget. Brooke and Brandy were little girls then and Peggy was their mom. The brothers and sisters in Christ at RHBC were family and were deeply loved and respected. It was a wonderful time in my life.

“ I just learned of Larry's death today, December 18. We talked every week for almost twenty years. He was my best man and a dear friend. It hurts so much that I did not know of his passing... and it was only after I contacted the Tabernacle Church that I found out. I pray that God has his everloving arms wrapped around all of the family members. I will miss him dearly.
