“ Rest easy brother. Some of my ealiest childhood memories are of you and dad turning me on to the art of whitetail deer hunting. I believe it was over thanksgiving at your place. (Maybe late 70's/early 80's?) After the cowboys vs redskins game, you & dad loaded me in the truck and dropped me off at the corner of a dirt road back in the woods. Walking out on my own, a .22 rifle, and directions of "go sit still under that tree, we'll be back for ya." I couldn't have felt any more like a "grown man" that day. For that, I thank you.
