

Mrs. Linda Diann Farmer

October 9, 1948 - March 11, 2026

Linda Diann Farmer passed away on March 11, 2026, at the age of 77.

Linda was born on October 9, 1948, in Roanoke, Alabama. She spent most of her life in Carrollton, Georgia, where she lovingly raised three children of her own, along with several grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Caring for her family was truly her calling. She devoted her life to loving, teaching, protecting, and providing for those she held dear.

Though small in stature, Linda was truly mighty in spirit. She filled her family's lives with warmth, laughter, and wisdom. From the silly songs she made up to help the children learn how to spell, to the bedtime prayers she faithfully shared, to the guidance and comfort she always provided, Linda was a constant source of love and strength. She gave so much of herself for her family, and each of us is deeply grateful to have been loved by her.

There are truly no words that can fully express how much she will be missed. While we know that death is a natural part of life, it is always heartbreaking to lose someone who meant so much. Yet we find comfort in our memories and in the blessing of having shared so many years with her. We thank God for the gift of her life and the love she gave so freely.

Linda is survived by her devoted husband of 49 years, Buddy Farmer; her daughters, Pamela Bracknell and Samantha Austin; her grandchildren, Kimberly Hume, Jeremy Warren, Victor Bracknell, Clarissa Thrower, Brittany Thrower, Jaquelyn Driver, Nikkolaus Driver, and Natasha Cook; and her cherished great-grandchildren, Jeffery Hume, Katelyn Thomas, Christopher Thomas, Amberlee Willbanks, Hillary Neighbors, Logan Bracknell, Jason McDonald, Allyson Warren, McKenzie Bracknell, Aurora Rollins, R.J. Stoyles, Victoria Bracknell, Lilith Thrower, Killian Rollins, Liam Warren, Ethan Warren, and Lincoln Rollins.

She was preceded in death by two brothers; her sister, Della Walker; her son, William Thrower; her granddaughter, Sharon Thrower; and her great-grandson, Amenadiel Rollins.
