“ James and I knew Era and Merle when we all attended Temple Baptist Church. We also lived on the same street on Jerry Lane as we raised our children. What a wonderful couple they were. They were very active in the Church and blessed so many people with the way they lived their lives. A great testimony of God's love for them and their children. Our heart-felt sympathy goes to their children, Rodney, Regina and Cindi and their Daughter-in-Love, Brenda.

“ Luther Meril Tidmore was one of the best friends I ever had. We worked together, fished together, hunted together and attended Southeast Toyota trips together. Luther and Era were always a “Hoot” to be with. I am proud to have had the chance to meet, to know and to hangout with them. Actually Luther was more than a friend,,, He and Era were “Family”. Luther, Tina and I are going to truly miss you. Your family and friendship was a big part to my family. In this difficult time... Our prayers go out to the Tidmore Family. The Garners
