“ My heart and mind are flooded with memories of Marcel. He was a wonderful friend and neighbor, a man who worked hard to provide for his family; was always willing to help others; enjoyed the beauty of nature as he worked in his yard every day he could; stood firm in his convictions; and enjoyed the fellowship of family and friends, mixed with laughter now and then. Marcel will be missed by many. My prayers and condolences are extended to his precious family. Love you!

“ We have such happy memories of times spent with the Cole family. Marcel always made us laugh, and he was a true Red Devil! I can still see him and hear him blowing that loud horn at football games! You all are in our prayers.
