From all the previous messages Michael, you and Kay are beginning to understand the love of others showering down upon the entire family like a light sprinkling rain. As your bodies become saturated with this love from all of our hearts are poured upon you may your hearts be warmed. We all will cross this river one day, and meet those loved ones whose race has already been accomplished.

I would like to share these following words with y'all, that was spoken this past Sunday at Old Camp's 11 AM service...

SOMETIMES I'M UP, AND SOMETIMES I'M DOWN
BUT STILL MY SOUL FEELS HEAVENLY BOUND.

THE BRIGHTEST DAY THAT I CAN SAY, WHEN JESUS WASHED MY SINS AWAY.
IF I GET THERE BEFORE YOU DO, I'LL CUT A HOLE AND PULL YOU THROUGH.
IF YOU GET THERE BEFORE I DO, TELL ALL MY FRIENDS I'M COMING TOO.
SWING LOW SWEET CHARIOT, COMING FOR TO CARRY ME HOME.

ALL our Love 💕,
Tim and Kathryn McWhorter
