

Mr. Marty Redden

October 11, 1970 - February 12, 2025

Mr. Marty Redden, 54, of Whitesburg, Georgia, passed away on February 12, 2025.

Marty was born on October 11, 1970 to Travis and Jane Redden. He was employed with Service Electric Company and a member of Roopville Road Baptist Church. Marty loved traveling and spending time with his wife, Cindy. He also loved fishing and spending time with his son, Cooper, and friends in his boat on the lake. Marty loved everybody and got the greatest joy from being with family and friends. But most of all, Marty loved the Lord.

Marty was preceded in death by his son, Tanner Redden; his father, Travis Redden; his grandparents, Dewitt and Vautell Redden and C.C. and Betty Shoemake; his father-in-law, Ronald Kimbrell; and his brother-in-law, Greg Kimbrell.

Survivors include his wife of 28 years, Cindy Kimbrell Redden; his son, Cooper Redden, and his special friend, Cassidy Brown; his mother, Jane Redden; his sister, Sherry Redden; his nephews, Darian Hill and Chase (Tara) Kimbrell; and his mother-in-law, Glenda Kimbrell.

The family will receive friends on Monday, February 17, 2025 from 12:00 till 2:00 p.m. at Rainwater Funeral Home. In accordance with his wishes, no formal funeral or graveside service will be held. Assisting as pallbearers will be Cooper Redden, Connor Robinson, Gerry Pounds, Scott Smith, Michael Kimbrell, and Randall Skipper. E5 Sgt. Chase Kimbrell will serve as an honorary pallbearer.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that those wishing to do so make contributions in Mary's memory to Tanner Hospice (<https://www.tanner.org/tanner-health-foundation/opportunities-to-help/hospice-giving>).

“ Special are the times with cousin, some to the best times were when we were little! Then God blessed me when we worked together at Trent Tube. I will forever love you buddy and this is just until we meet again. PS I am so glad that your suffering is over and you have a new body that you rest in now and can finally play with Tanner! I love you still, and until we meet again! Lynn

“ Cindy and Cooper, I'm so sorry for your loss. You're in my thoughts and prayers. Praying for strength, peace and comfort to you both. Prayers for our family and all the lives that he touched. I'm so heartbroken that Marty is no longer with us. Knowing that he is now healed from his illness, and in the arms of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ gives me comfort and peace. Marty was a good man and one word to describe Marty was... SELFLESS with a genuine heart. I love you Marty and I'm going to miss all the love and laughter you brought into my life throughout the years. This is not goodbye it's only until we see each other again. Go Rest High On That Mountain Marty. You are forever in our hearts. ❤️
