My name is Carl Ann and I worked with Mary for many years at Tanner Memorial Hospital (Now Tanner Health Systems) in Carrollton. Mary and I became friends and stayed in touch with each other over the years as time would permit. I have fond memories of Mary and her family. My husband Bobby who is now deceased visited Mary and Bill on one occasion to get some chicken manure to fertilize our garden. I regret not being able to attend Mary's Homegoing Services, She will always have a special place in my heart of having the honor and privilege of knowing Mary Gay. My deepest sympathy goes out to her family. May you find comfort in the Word of God as well as in family and friends.
