“ Mrs. Mary Maxwell was such a good friend to me I met her many years ago when my daughters who are now mothers themselves were very young . She altered formals for all of us. And made pinched pleaded draperies , my comforter and dust ruffles pillow shams and throw pillows for my bedroom . She recovered cushions for my wicker furniture among other things . What talent I grew to love her as a trusted friend . I would call ahead & ask if I could come to ,just visit , only if she had her work caught up . I enjoyed taking her a plate of food or picking her up a hot biscuit . She was so appreciative of every small thing . She was a blessing ,to me . She was a real lady , witty, an encourager, and inspiration . And such a work ethic of unparalleled integrity . I carried some of my cousins to meet her after each lost their husband. I knew she would be an inspiration and encourage them as we talked . And she did . I'll miss her . I never got over missing her 90th birthday party a few years ago because my husband and I were out of the country . I have grieved . But I also rejoice . For I know she is with her Lord and Savior . And I know she had many many faces of dear beloved family and friends to greet her at the gates of Heaven . Thank you Lord for this saint . Barbara Johnson , Carrollton, GA.

*Ms Mary Maxwell well be truly missed. She was a wonderful person inside and out.
I am sure she is enjoying her favorite lunch time meal, of peanut butter crackers & a ice cold Coke.
She always had a smile on her face.
All her clients were family, if she knew them for an hour or a life time.
Thank you Ms. Maxwell for your friendship and Talent.

Ms. Mary was like a sister to my Mom (Hazel Camp) and a Second Mother to me and my brothers (Jimmy and Bobby Camp) and sister Jackie (Camp) Lovvorn. She was so patient with me growing up as she would peg my blue jeans to make me look like Mick Jagger (Rolling Stones) and sew jackets that made me look like one of the Beatles...all when I was 15! I would often be dropped off at her store (Williamson's Grocery) on Highway 100, and she would talk with me in such a caring and loving way. She was so patient and was such a good Mother to Darnell and Darrell.

One of my favorite stories of Ms. Mary is actually a Christmas Tale I share with my grandkids. I was at the Store warming myself by the heater on on Christmas Eve...cold and rainy. A man pulled up with many small children packed into his car. I looked out the Store's window and counted nine small faces pressed against the car windows. He asked Ms. Mary, "Give me a bag of your cheapest flour and some candy for my kid's Christmas." Ms. Mary replied, "We have only one brand of flour, but it will make nice biscuits in the morning." She then offered, "I have some bacon you can also have and some Christmas candy for your kids." When the man said he didn't have that much money, Ms. Mary said..."You can pay me next week. Tonight is Christmas Eve and those children need to know there is kindness in the World." Her generosity and love for those kids with their faces pressed against the car window became the "Standard" for kindness in my life as an adult.

To Ms. Mary's family...especially to Darnell, Darrell and Scotty, all of whom are like my Brothers, I offer the Camp Family's deepest sympathies for your wonderful Mother. May the Lord bless her, hold her close, and sooth the pain of all those who loved her. She will be missed by so many.
