“ We lived across the road from them for a few years. She was great to be around and had such a great sense of humor. We swam in their pond often! Was in Bowdon in March and dropped in to visit with Don and Mildred. Wonderful visit. It was like coming home. Will be thinking about the Boatright family!

“ When I heard the news I took a trip down memory lane. There are hardly any childhood memories that didn't have Granny Boat in them. I always knew when I rode my bike to her house she would have some coconut cake or a popcicle waiting on me to find in her fridge. I loved her dearly and she will be greatly missed by all of us Miller girls. Love to you all.
