“ I knew Mrs. Brown as Aunt Mick growing up. She was always so sweet to us kids and always made us feel welcomed and safe when we visited her. She sure was proud of her kids too- I remember that about her. My condolences to her sweet family.

“ She is, and will forever remain a wonderful godly woman. Her testimony will forever be found in the faith of her children and grandchildren. Please know that my thoughts and prayers will be with the whole family in this trying time. At 102, she did live a long but that will not take away the shock and pain of her loss, but our Father in heaven will!

All my Love to Franky, Sybil, Mackie and Chance
