“ Got to know Mitch during the last few years of his life. Our conversations spanned a variety of subject matter. I admired his direct approach to any subject and his matter-of-fact opinions could not be negatively debated, yet I think he loved an intellegent witted debate. If I was "gaining-ground" he would come up with some "joke" pertaining to the subject at hand and off on another found subject. He always wanted to help even when he was lamed up, didn't care what it was and would find some "smart-thing" to say even while we working at a chore. Mitch I will keep your gardening designs and ideas and think of you while I'm working in mine...Elaine as you sit on your porch and look at the gardens Mitch designed and built for you, he will be with you always....

Love
