

Mollie Robinson

January 16, 1995 - November 28, 2021

Mollie Taylor Robinson, of Bowdon, Georgia, passed away on November 28, 2021. She was 26.

Mollie was born January 16, 1995 to her loving parents, Bernard and Lisa. After six years of being the only child she became the big sister of Elijah, whom she cherished and loved limitlessly. She was a member of the Bowdon High School Class of 2013. While at Bowdon High School she was a member of the Red Devil Band of Pride where she also served as Drum Major. After graduation she attended the University of Georgia.

At the age of 15 Mollie was diagnosed with Epilepsy, a condition that required multiple surgeries, all of which she faced with courage. She was a passionate epilepsy advocate and found comfort in helping others along their treatment journey. She found joy in working and always sought opportunities to serve and bring happiness to people.

Mollie's closest companion and center of her world was Ralph, her beloved pot bellied pig. As a self-described pig mom, she had wished someday to open a pig rescue. Additionally, she loved her Jeeps and found joy driving with her windows down and music playing.

She is also survived by her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Bridwell and Mr.

and Mrs. James Robinson, all of Bowdon; her additional parents who loved her by choice, Charles Akin and Tammy Robinson, and her bonus brother, Tim Jackson; plus grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Akin of Carrollton and Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Hull of Franklin; her aunt, Susan Robinson; and also her future sister-in-law, Kate Anglin.

Services to honor Mollie's life will include visitation at Rainwater Funeral Home on Tuesday, November 30, 2021 from 5:00 till 7:00 p.m. Her funeral will be at Providence Baptist Church in Tallapoosa on Wednesday, December 1, 2021 at 2:00 p.m. Interment will be at Mountain View Baptist Church in Bowdon. Presiding at the service will be Rev. Tommy Wright and Rev Curtis Pixler. Music will be provided by Jimmy Mauney. Pallbearers will be Elijah Robinson, Tim Jackson, Shane Edmonds, Chad Morris, Mike Knight, and Scott McCormick and honorary pallbearers will be Paige Lambert, Ola Wilson, Elizabeth Sprewell, Sandy Knight and Vickie Thompson.

To honor Mollie her mother suggests wearing purple, Mollie's favorite color, which also signifies Epilepsy Awareness. Also, members of the Jeep community are invited to join her funeral procession leaving the funeral home at 1:00 pm on Wednesday.

“ Mollie was a true friend and wise beyond her years. She lived life to the fullest and if you were her friend you felt that great life. That precious young lady loved her concerts and I lived life vicariously through her! We bonded over being the small town, Southern country girls and called ourselves the Southern Belles when we were volunteering for our precious NeuroPace as RNS Ambassadors and with the Epilepsy Foundation. We both loved being advocates for those living with Epilepsy but were determined that it would not take life away. I will miss our calls, texts, jokes, and fun times. There is a hole in life where you should be. You were my friend, little sister, fellow RNS Ambassador, and were always ready to solve every problem in the world. You would have loved seeing all of the fine people who showed up for you last night! The entire town! I promise to watch out for your family for you. Save me a spot in Heaven beside you. I will love you and treasure our sisterhood forever. I love you Mollie Wollie 💜

What a joy it was to know you. You truly lit up a room with your laughter, fun, and infectious spirit. You had a strength and courage few possess, and you made the very most of every moment you had in this life. While much too brief, what a life you lived! We are blessed to have known you, and I hope you are enjoying all the music concerts you can handle in Heaven! -
