“Nellie and I worked together at CBS RECORDS, later it became SONY MUSIC. She was a wonderful lady and very gifted in her skills pertaining to the manufacturing environment. A very pleasant demeanor with a strong work ethic. Nellie kept me informed of Sandy's successful career in the billboard field. Nellie and I first met when her husband deer hunted with a group of men I ran with. He took me home with him a time or two back in the day. Now I shoot pool with some of his brothers and met her son in law who's married to Sandy. He also went to school with and played football with a guy who was in the same Navy Helicopter Squadron I was assigned to in the San Diego area. We later became roommates off base. We live in a small world at times, and never know how our lives will be integrated and intertwined with one another. I thank our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ for the time and continuing times I have spent with Nellie and her family. May God our Heavenly Father give her soul Joy, Peace, and everlasting love until we meet again on the other side, and spend eternity together.”
