“ Harold and I had many enjoyable visits with Aunt Nellie Ruth and Uncle Clyde. We always had great food and played games until we dropped. I remember one visit with our children and we arrived so late that we had stopped at a fast food place to curb our appetites. When we got to their house Aunt Nellie Ruth brought out a spread of food. We told the kids to shut up and eat what they could. The next morning we were met with a huge breakfast. We never went away hungry.
