

Mr. Norman Warren

January 20, 1939 - September 21, 2025

The Lord called his son, Norman Warren, home on Sunday, September 21, 2025. He was surrounded by his loving family where they were reminiscing and sharing sweet memories when he passed peacefully. He was born January 20, 1939 to the late Joseph Marion Warren and Altha Othello Thomas Warren, and he was the youngest of nine children.

Norman was a hard working man who retired from Southwire after 32 years of dedicated service as a machinist. He was affectionately known as 'Doc' by his coworkers and friends in the machine shop. His extraordinary work ethic wouldn't let him sit around after retiring from Southwire, so he worked as a mechanic at McIntyre Lumber Company until his health started to decline. Norman is survived by his loving wife of 50 years, Peggy, who he most often referred to as Peg and always said "she's a good old girl". In addition to Peggy, he is survived by two daughters, Diane Henderson and Katie (Buster) Bryant, and two sons Randy (Kelli) Haehnlein and Tim (Christie) Haehnlein. He has left wonderful memories to his grandchildren Brian (April) Bailey, Brandi (Michael) Moore, Joseph Partlow, Amanda Pauley, Kaitlyn (Brian) Bryant, Emily Bryant, Chris Haehnlein, Kristin (Bobby) Roundtree, Ashleigh (Jerit) Bonds, TJ (Taylor) Haehnlein, Ryan Haehnlein, Taylor Haehnlein, Shayna (Zach) Butler, 19 great grandchildren, 2 great great grandchildren, sister in law Evelyn Hughes, brother in law Kenneth (Angi) Huddleston, and a host of loving nieces and nephews.

Norman was preceded in death by his parents Joe and Othello Warren, sisters

Corine Adams and Sylvia Patterson, brothers Winton Warren, Edsel Warren, Perry Warren, Jerry Warren, Neal Warren, and Gene Warren, daughter Oneida Haehnlein, son in law Butch Henderson, and great great granddaughter Kenleigh Haehnlein.

Friends and family may pay their respects on Tuesday, September 23, 2025 from 4 until 7 pm at Rainwater Funeral Home. The funeral will be held at Rainwater's Chapel on Wednesday, September 24, 2025 at 2:00, and the services will be conducted by Ricky Rayburn, Josh Boatright, and John Lemmings. Interment will follow at Kansas Baptist Church.

I Went work at Southwire 1979 & best I remember he was in the old machine shop. Talked with him many times & I immediately knew he was a peace loving good guy. My prayers for everyone here for their loss.
