

Mrs. Patricia Kinney Robinson

March 15, 1939 - September 7, 2025

Patricia Kinney Robinson, lovingly known as “Nana,” passed away peacefully on September 7th after a courageous journey with Alzheimer’s disease.

Nana was a woman with a heart as big as her sense of humor. She was known for her quick wit, her warm laugh, and her constant check-ins with those around her—always asking, “How are the babies?” and genuinely caring about the answer. Her kindness and humor lit up every room she entered.

Most importantly, Nana’s life was guided by her deep love for God. Her faith was the foundation of her strength and her joy, and she shared that love through the way she treated others—with compassion, patience, and grace.

She was devoted to her family and cherished the time she spent with her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. Whether it was sharing stories, cracking jokes, or simply being present.

She is survived by her sisters, Diane DeVault and Fran Newton; her daughters, Karen Pollard and Carol White; her granddaughters, Allison Watson, Andrea White and Hannah Runels; her great-grandchildren, Breanna, Rynn, Huck, Hawk, and Jolie. She is preceded in death by her husband CB Robinson.

The family wishes to thank Cleburne County nursing home and Gentiva Hospice staff for their compassion and support during Nana’s journey.

A service to celebrate Nana’s life will be held on September 12, 2025 at 2:00 p.m. at Rainwater Funeral Home in Bowdon, Georgia. Prior to the service, the family will receive friends at the funeral home from 12:00 p.m. till the service hour. Friends and family are invited to share stories and laughter in her memory—just as she would have wanted.

Interment will follow at Community Gardens Cemetery in Bowdon.

Nana will be deeply missed, but her faith, her humor, and her loving spirit will live on in all who were blessed to know her.
