I am saddened to learn of the passing of Paul. Our paths haven't crossed since our teen years together, but I held Paul in high regards. I always believed him to be an honest person that believed in decency and fair play - he was a person of high tone. Rest in peace, Paul!

“ My Daddy (Ronnie Moncus) played softball with Abby. (That's what we always called him) This is my clearest memory of Abby. (Please forgive me if this clear memory isn't 100% accurate, I was a small child)

Once when I was a little girl (about 8yrs old) we were on our way to a softball game. We rounded a curve and saw Abby standing on the side of the road.. He had pretty much totaled his truck and camper. He was white as a sheet and so glad to see us! We stopped along with Danny Carnes who was also going to play. (Softball) We were all standing around talking and helping (calm Abby down I guess) when suddenly a black truck came around the curve towards us. Danny grabbed me and carried me as he and everyone else ran up the hill! We were all so scared! In the truck was Preacher Halsley. (Halsey?) He slammed on his brakes and slid, then the truck turned over on its side. The preacher was ok so Daddy, Danny and Abby helped him turn the truck upright and he drove it home. I do not remember if Abby made the game or not.

I loved all those guys (that Daddy played softball with) and their families. I wish we had stayed in touch. I am so sorry Abby has passed away. He was a great man. I have only fond memories of him.
