

Paula Susan Mitchell

July 11, 2022

Paula Susan Mitchell, age 57 of Carrollton, GA, passed away on July 11, 2022.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Gary and Billie Jean Mitchell; her sister, Luanne Mitchell Smith; and her youngest son, Jonah Smith.

She is survived by two of her sons, Mitch Smith (Maddi) of Raleigh, NC, and Nathan Smith (Ann) of Colorado Springs, CO; and her brother, Ryan Mitchell (Beth) of Ranburne, AL. She is also survived by many other loving family members and friends.

Born to Gary and Billie Jean Mitchell on January 4, 1965, Paula loved life and made a real mark on the world. After graduating from Bowdon High School, class of 1983, Paula pursued a life of entrepreneurial endeavors. She opened a printing supply store, Printing Plus, in Carrollton; owned a tanning salon and gym, Endless Summer, in West Monroe, LA; and baked an untold number of cakes and sweets for weddings and other events.

She loved her church family, New Chapel Hill of West Monroe, LA, where she taught Sunday School for many years. Much of her free time was spent creating art for other people, particularly paintings, decorations, and jewelry. She was the most caring, loving, and outgoing person in every room.

A memorial service is scheduled for 10:30am on Saturday, July 16, 2022, at Beulah Baptist Church (439 Beulah Church Rd, Carrollton, GA 30117). Pastor Gary Harris from Arise Community Church will officiate.

“ I was honored to work with Paula in her study of music when she was a young girl. Through the years, our paths crossed intermittently, and I was overjoyed to see her worshipping with us just a few months ago. I never saw Paula when she wasn't smiling, praising the Lord, and sharing words of encouragement! To Paula's family, be comforted knowing that her hope was in the Lord, and she shared His love with countless others that she influenced daily! I was truly blessed with her friendship, and am thankful that He allowed us another opportunity to rekindle our friendship just a few months ago. I pray you will sense His sweet presence as you journey through this time of transition.

“ Paula taught our daughter’s (Mary) Sunday school class at New Chapel Hill for several years. She always had a big smile and a loving hug for her “sweet little Mary”. We have a Christmas ornament that she and Mary made together and it hangs on our tree every year. We will always remember and love “Ms. Paula”.
Mitch, Nathan, and family, we are praying for you all. Much love
