“ Micheal, Kim, and Tina , My deepest sympathy,its so hard for me to believe that Ruby is gone . She was so beautiful and full of life . Your parents ,my late wife and I were in the military together . Since Ruby and my wife were both from La Grange we became good friends . My prayers are with you and your families , again I am so sorry .

“ My mother was the greatest mother in the world! She raised 3 wonderful children all by herself with no help. Me and my 2 sisters Kim and Tina and still kept a roof over our heads and food on the table and clothes to wear not making much money. She sacrificed so much that she wanted to make sure that her children were happy. I never knew till it was to late. I love you so much mother.

*Your son,
Michael*

“ I was just a child when I knew her; she was around 16 or 17. Ms. Ruby and my brother were sweet on each other. I never forgot those beautiful blue eyes. Saw her for the first time since childhood a few years back and recognized her by those eyes..which were still shining bright blue. Sorry to hear about your mother, grandmother and friend. I know how hard it is. I lost my mother on June 22, 2010.

“ Dear Grandma, Lacey, Kim and Family, Tina and Family, Micheal and Family, Our hearts break at the news of the loss of your Mother, and our friend, Mama Ruby, she took us into her life and helped me get over the loss of my mother 5 years ago. We visited often, and talked frequently. She was as beautiful in her heart as you was to see. I always answered her as my Pretty Lady, I will never forget the kindness she showed my children, as well as myself. She will be missed sorely, She loved her children, family and friends, one of the most loving women I have ever met. Tell Grandmother we will see her soon. Did not know about her passing until yesterday. We had a new addition added to our family, Austins son. Heeaven is brighter, although this world is losing its light. We will keep you in our prayers and in our hearts. With Deepest Sympathy, Robin Coggins, Austin,, Nikki and Layne Cash, Ansley and Laiden Lee, Abbey and Avery
